ENDOWMENT NEWS

An Endowment Moment...

“Leaving a Legacy”

1 Leaving a Legacy... Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church has a rich heritage. The Legacy we share was handed to us by The Rev. William Passavant. Our roots go back to a small railroad paint shop near the Ohio River. Rev. Passavant had a vision for what the church could be. In a like manner, Jim Baldwin, Paul Baldwin, Clarence and Ann Turner, Juanita Bonzo, Lou Emerick, Phyllis Grant, Elmer Enigson, Bob and Lavada Cleis, Bob White and Ted Wilson shared that vision by making provision in their estates for Grace Church. They helped perpetuate our heritage. The Legacy each of us can share is to provide for a portion of our estates for the future of our congregation. What we do today can determine what the church will be able to do in the years to come.

Imagine if the current endowment fund of $1,100,000 were to be $2,000,000! With a return of 5% ($100,000) the Church's utilities and other fixed expenses would be paid with income from the endowment. Current offerings would be used for the ongoing ministry, for community outreach, youth programs and activities for seniors.

Those of us today can leave a Legacy for the generations to come and create a strong viable congregation that certainly will be needed to face the challenges that lie ahead.

For more information on providing a Legacy for Grace Church contact Harry Baker, Chick O'Data or Walt Van Dyke.

POETRY CORNER

Alzheimer's Walk

The one I love is gone, you know,
Yet still is close to me.
The sparkle in my loved ones eyes
Has faded drastically.

We still hold hands together
As we walk down memory lane.
I talk about the things we shared
But it is not the same.

The love I feel will never change.
I hold on anxiously.
I treasure now the moments when
My loved one knows it's me.

As days go by I see the change
That I cannot prevent.
Yet I remember days gone by
When we loved and were content.

I thank you, Lord, for giving us
The time we shared together.
Oh, I will not desert my Love
As we walk as one forever.
