Endowment News

An Endowment Moment...

"Gifts of Life Insurance"

6 A few years ago Grace Church received the proceeds from a life insurance policy. The member, Mrs. Josephine Shepherd, assigned a policy to the Church before her passing. She felt she wanted to help the church and the policy was no longer needed for the financial security of her family.

Life insurance can be an excellent method of providing a major future benefit to Grace Church. A gift of life insurance can generally be made at a relatively modest after-tax cost to the member. In addition to an outright gift of an insurance policy, there is another important charitable use for life insurance. Oftentimes, an individual is strongly compelled to make a gift to the church, but is constrained from doing so by family financial considerations. The concern is, if a lifetime gift is made, the family will be deprived of assets they might eventually need. Capital replacement is a technique that has evolved to address this issue.

There are a number of ways a gift of life insurance can be made to Grace Church.

- Assignment of an existing policy,
- Naming Grace Church a beneficiary of a portion of an existing policy,
- Purchase of a new policy naming Grace Church the owner and beneficiary. In this form the premiums are tax deductible.

For more information on a gift of life insurance, contact Harry Baker, Chick O'Data or Walt Van Dyke.

"Mary treasured..." Luke 2

God reminded me how good He is at blessing ordinary things, many times in 2017. The awesome gifts and treasures shared through our Faith-Family of Grace are a tremendous witness to God's incarnate presence. Thank you for treasuring together what God is doing, through the generosity of your labor. Humbly, I envision God's gifts blessing the lives of many more in 2018. Connected by love, we will be revitalized in Christ.

Thank you for all of the many prayers, good deeds, and offerings!
Pastor
